Immigrant Rights and Interacting with Immigration Law Enforcement

Thursday, May 14 | 6:15-7:30 PM

Sitka Public Library, 320 Harbor Dr
In-person and virtual attendance

This training invites impacted community members, specifically immigrants, tribal members, and those who may be racially profiled, plus family members and friends, to help them understand their rights when interacting with immigration law enforcement at home, in public, or while detained. The importance of Family Safety Plans and resources to prepare families for potential immigration emergencies will be addressed.
